

Don't leave money on the table...

Did you know that you may be missing an opportunity to be reimbursed for respite and/or certain goods and services?

Learn about all of the Center's grant opportunities and how to apply

The Family Reimbursement Grant is funded by OPWDD to alleviate the financial burden and open doors to goods and services, recreation, and respite opportunities that would otherwise be unaffordable to families of people with developmental disabilities. Learn about this opportunity and several others offered at The Center.

Must be OPWDD eligible and live "at home" and not in an agency residence or on their own
